13th September 2016

Dear Parents,

Since joining St Chad's in 2011, I have continually been amazed by the commitment and hard work of our PFA (Parents Friends Association). Over the years they have raised thousands of pounds for our school which has enabled many projects to be carried out such as: the KS2 playground clubhouse, the pirate ship and train on the KS1 playground, books for reading at lunchtimes, the canopy over the main entrance doors, toys for Early Years, sports kits and many other items for our children.

However, we are really struggling to keep our PFA going with so few members (only three!) as the workload cannot be shared.

We appreciate that many of you volunteer to help at discos and fayres and this is really appreciated. In order to try and take some of the workload from our three members, we desperately need some more volunteers to join our PFA.

Therefore, we will be holding a coffee and cake morning on Wednesday 21st September 9:00-9:30 for anyone to come along and find out more about how you can help (no matter how small). Even if you decide it's not for you, we appreciate anyone who can come along to find out more. The meeting will take place in the KS1 classroom next to the ramp and we look forward to seeing as many of you as possible there.

Yours sincerely,

Miss S Clarke
