Dear Parents,

As a school we have been looking at our Christian Distinctiveness and what that means for all of our staff, pupils and parents. We would greatly appreciate your views on what it means to you, as a parent, that we are a Church of England primary school and we ask that you answer the questions below and return this to school before Thursday 29th November. Thank you for your feedback.

Children: _____ (Optional) Class(es) _____

1	We are a Christian school. What does that mean to you?
2	Could we improve any aspects of school regarding its Christian Character?
3	Does your child talk about assemblies/ worship in school and its impact?
4	Do you read the prayers on the newsletter and use them at home?
5	Does your child enjoy their Religious Education lessons and do they like any RE topics in particular?
6	Do you use our school values at home (and how)?
